

WALUM NEWS NOTES

E. W. Everson left last Monday for Devils Lake, N. D., to attend the convention of independents held there for the purpose of considering the proposed recall.

Miss Sylvia Hovland arrived home last Monday from Noonan having been called home on account of the failing health of her brother, Albert.

B. Hoffman came down from Cooperstown last Monday for an overnight's visit at the home of Edw. Hoffman and family.

Arnold Skofstad returned last Monday from Cooperstown where he visited with his folks over Sunday.

Mrs. Erik Heyerdahl and daughter Myrtle left Tuesday for their home at Valley City after having spent a few days visiting with relatives west of Walum.

Nels Nelson arrived Saturday from Wisconsin to take employment in this vicinity for the summer.

Yes—Bring your cream to Walum I pay the market price, good weight and good test and also pay cash for eggs. Bert Campbell, Walum.

Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson and Mrs. Bert Campbell returned Friday from Edmunds, N. D., where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferman Layne.

Chester Wunderlich returned to Jamestown Wednesday after having spent a few days on business here.

Chester Wallum was a Dazey passenger Thursday.

Miss Josephine Nelson visited with friends in Dazey a couple of days this week.

A Mrs. Fisher of Valley City gave a talk in the interests of the Federation of Nonpartisan clubs of North Dakota in the Walum Hall Saturday afternoon. The hall was well-filled and apparently a goodly number of the audience enjoyed the talk to the utmost. Naturally the independents who were present could not agree with the conclusions drawn by the speaker and the effect of the talk was as usual pleasing to the Nonpartisan faction and contrary to the independents.

Miss Alma McMillan spent the time between trains at the county seat Saturday.

After having been confined to bed for over three years Albert Hovland died Monday evening, March 28th, at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Arne Hovland. The funeral was held both from the house and from the Church Thursday afternoon Rev. Natwick officiating. Elsewhere in this issue will be found the obituary.
