

WALUM NEWS NOTES

E. W. Everson left Friday for Jamestown on business.

Glenn Broten arrived Saturday for a visit at the home of his uncle, Ole Broten.

Carl F. Werner and Pete Grotting motored to Valley City Saturday on business.

E. W. Everson spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Wednesday on business.

Dr. S. Juell gave a concert in the Walum Hall Saturday evening which was well attended.

Edwin Everson is reported to be on the sick-list. We are hoping for his early recovery.

The Great Western Grain Co. have been repairing their elevator here preparatory to handling the new crop.

The St. Olaf Ladies Aid had a very successful ice cream social on the school house lawn Saturday evening.

Arnold Skofstad was at the county seat between trains Wednesday, getting some repairs made for the elevator.

Quite a number of threshers are expecting to start threshing this week and are now busy getting their rigs in shape.

Walum has had four cars of coal in this past week which will help considerably in case of a serious car shortage.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson returned last Wednesday from South Dakota where they spent some time at the lakes there.

E. W. Iverson, cashier of the Farmers State Bank, left Thursday for his home at Pelican Rapids, Minn., where he expects to spend a short vacation.

Miss Sylvia Hoyland left Monday for Valley City where she expected to join a class in travel study and leave Tuesday for a two weeks' tour in Yellowstone Park.

The J. W. Canfield family left Tuesday morning for their new home at Lark, N. D. The Canfield's have been here for the past two years and during their stay here made many friends who regretted their departure but hope they will have prosperity and happiness in their new abode.