

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson and Mrs. C. C. Nash motored to Cooperstown Wednesday to do some trading.

Pat Higgins of Fargo was a business visitor in town Thursday.

O. E. Wakeman, district blockman for the International Harvester Co., made a business call here Wednesday.

Chas. Christopherson returned Wednesday from Grand Forks where he spent last week at the State Fair demonstrating the Stockland fruit jar scaler, of which he is a representative.

Bill Nelson of Cooperstown and Jack Murphy of Sanborn called on friends here for a short time Thursday while motoring through.

C. J. Nash, of Finley visited for a short time at the C. C. Nash home here Thursday. Mrs. C. C. Nash returned to Finley with him and will visit with relatives there for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson left Saturday for Detroit, Minn., by auto to spend a few days at the lakes.

Mr. A. Sandberg, of Chicago, visited at the Geo. J. Jacobson home a short time this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Iverson, Axel Everson and Mrs. J. P. Danielson returned from Birchwood, N. D., Saturday evening.

A little threshing was done last week on the Wogslund and C. A. Evenson farms last week. The barley threshed on the Wogslund farm went 28 bushels to the acre. Harvesting is in full blast in this vicinity and with favorable weather this week the major portion of the crop will be harvested. Conflicting reports as to the expected yield are coming in, but no doubt the yield will be above the average.

Mr. Joe Strate of Minneapolis called on friends here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Welch and Miss Carrie Larson arrived here Tuesday from Fargo.

St. Olaf's Lutheran Sunday School will meet at 10 o'clock next Sunday and regularly at that time from now on. A vacation period during the month of July was taken by the Sunday School. It is hoped that all of those enrolled will return and that new members will be added to the school.