WALUM NEWS NOTES

R. W. Sayre arrived here Sunday from Iowa to look after his farming interests.

George Gunderson left Sunday morning for Alberta where he has some land.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Everson and daughter, Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson, went to New Rockford Sunday to meet Mrs. H. C. Jensen on No. 2 Sunday evening enroute to Iowa.

Carl F. Werner motored to Valley City Saturday on business.

E. W. Iverson and Axel Everson autoed up from Fargo Wednesday.

George Gunderson arrived here Friday to look after his farming interests.

Arnold Skofstad left Friday evening for Fargo to have his ears treated for an ailment.

E. W. Everson returned home from Fargo Tuesday where he spent a few days on business.

Miss Hilda Beaulieu arrived here Wednesday from her home at Mahanomen, Minn., for a visit at the Bert Campbell home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll arrived home Sunday from Rochester, Minn., where Mr. Carroll has been for treatments.

Mrs. F. Toenberg and son Finn arrived here Wednesday from Tolna for a visit with friends. They returned to their home Friday.

Miss Grace Wogsland, Mrs. J. P. Danielson, Shorty Porter and Gay Hustad arrived here Wednesday evening from Birchwood, N. D., by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnston returned to their home at Valley City Monday after spending a short time visiting at the farm home of their son, Fred Johnston.

The Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co. delivered five tractors to the farmers of this community the past week. This goes to show that they carry tractors that are in demand by a majority of the farmers.

Last Tuesday night at eleven o'clock the Farmers Store received a telephone order for a binder and the following day at noon the binder was delivered and in operation. Some service. Are you getting this from your dealer, Mr. Farmer?

Saturday evening Eric O. Wallin and family, while coming to Walum, collided with Clifford Wogsland and some friends. They were both driving Fords and both cars were damaged to some extent. Seems both parties to the collision blame the other for the accident. No one was hurt.
