A Christmas program and basket social will be given in the Walum Hall Wednesday evening, Dec. 22nd, at 8:15 p. m. by the Walum School. The proceeds will go towards securing new books for the school library. This cause should have the hearty approval of all the people and their attendance at the entertainment is urged by those in charge. Ladies are requested to bring baskets and cups with which to serve coffee. Gentlemen please show your interest by being present. A Christmas Tree will be provided and everyone is cordially invited to come and bring the children.
