

Pete Grotting spent the time between trains at the county seat last Monday on business.

Mrs. Haldor Stromme and children went to Dazey Monday evening to visit at the home of her daughter.

Remember the cows, and buy more cows; they will make you money, and of course you will need a new cream separator when you have cows to milk. We can help you in this matter, by selling you one of these new PRIMROSE Cream Separators on our new selling plan. Call and make us a visit. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Walum, N. D.

Senator John L. Micklethun left Monday evening for Bismarck to resume his duties in the senate after having spent a short time at his home during the recess of the legislative assembly.

W. A. Marshall arrived Monday from Fargo and has opened up the Walum Barber Shop. The Walumites are glad indeed to again have their home tonsorial parlor so as not to have to go elsewhere when the occasion arises.

Carl F. Werner and Eric O. Wallin left Tuesday for Fargo to attend the implement dealers convention being held there.

E. W. Everson and Andrew Wogslund were Hannaford passengers Tuesday.

If you are planning on buying any new machinery call and see us before getting prices elsewhere. We will guarantee to save you money. If you are not going to buy make out your list of repairs and order early from us. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co. Walum, N. D.

Trade at home; patronize our advertisers.

C. A. Evenson was at the county seat Wednesday on business.

Harvey Rasmussen came up from Dazey Thursday for a short visit with relatives.

E. W. Everson left Thursday for Fargo on business.

Chester Wallum was a Dazey passenger Thursday.

Bert Campbell and Arvie Wunderlich motored to Fargo Friday evening returning here Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Swenson and daughter left Friday for Valley City where they expect to visit for a while.

Carl F. Werner and Eric O. Wallin returned Saturday from Fargo where they spent several days attending the Implement Dealers' convention. They report a very good meeting.

Miss Magna Fliflet and Mrs. Arvie Wunderlich were Hannaford passengers Monday.

Remember that we sell for cash and our prices are cash prices and we can save you money by trading here. Call and bring in your list and we will do the rest. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Walum, N. D.

Julius Brekke came down from Hannaford Monday on a business mission.

H. G. Rohlwing was at the county seat Monday between trains.

Miss Carrie Larsen was a Hannaford passenger Monday.

Mrs. Close spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Monday.

Its High Time to Wake Up (Concluded from first page)

The cut-price advertisements of all our merchants is an evidence to the truth of this assertion.

Read them to-day and buy to-morrow the things you put off buying so long.

Keep this fact everlastingly before you:

If you don't buy what the other fellow produces he cannot buy what you produce.

And if buying slows up many thousands of people, not actual makers of the things we consume, will be thrown out of work.

Railroad men, for instance, and cartmen, clerks and bookkeepers and people employed in a thousand different ways.

That's about all there is to the whole situation.

If the non-buying condition con-