

Mrs. T. Marsh was a passenger for Cooperstown Monday where she expects to visit with friends.

E. W. Everson left Monday for Fargo where he expected to take in the Tri-State Grain Growers Convention being held there.

Remember our breakfast foods are now being sold on a cash basis and we can give you more for your money and you will be better satisfied with the deal. Call and get our prices once and we will convince you we are right. Farmers Store, Walum, N. Dak.

The ladies of Walum and vicinity gave a parcel shower Monday evening on Miss Lela Campbell at the Jacobson home. Rumors are current that Miss Campbell expects to be married in a short time to Mr. Raymond Newport. Those present at the shower enjoyed the evening very much.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Rognlien and daughter Josie left Monday for Fargo to attend the Grain Growers convention.

The balance of our sheep-lined coats are going to be sold at such a low price that you will be forced to buy now. Come in and look these coats over and we will convince you that we are selling them at the rock bottom price. Farmers Store, Walum, N. Dak.

Misses Ermie and Carrie Larson arrived Thursday from Fargo to visit for a while with relatives here.

Patronize our advertisers.

Chester Wunderlich returned to his winter home at Jamestown Tuesday evening after spending a few days visiting here with relatives.

Mrs. Julius Larsen was a Hannaford passenger Thursday.

The citizens of Bartley Township sent Mr. James Bothwell and Mr. Wm. Van Scofk as delegates to Bismarck to get first hand information on the doings at the legislature, and other political matters. These two gentlemen left Tuesday evening for Bismarck and when they return it is expected another delegation of two will be sent and so on during the present session of the legislature.

Funds are being raised for this purpose by giving a series of entertainments at the Bartley Consolidated School House.

Mrs. Fred Wilke returned to her home at Wimbledon Tuesday having visited at the Jacobson home since Saturday.

Mrs. C. C. Nash was at Hannaford Wednesday having some dental work done.

We have a big line of Aluminum ware which we are selling for cash at a very large discount. Call and look this over. Farmers Store, Walum, N. Dak.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Storlie entertained a number of their friends Thursday evening at their farm home east of Walum. The evening was spent in playing progressive whist and a very delicious lunch was served. Those present enjoyed the evening to the utmost.

Mrs. T. Marsh arrived Saturday from her home at Crookston, Minn., for a few days' visit with her brother, E. W. Iverson.

E. W. Everson returned Saturday from Fargo where he spent most of last week attending the Tri-State Grain Growers Convention.

Grover Campbell came up from Fingal last Tuesday and spent a few days here looking after business matters and visiting with relatives.

Mrs. F. Layne returned to her home at Edmunds Wednesday after having visited with relatives here for a few days.

Arnold Skotstad went to Lovell Friday where he transacted business between trains.

Now is the time to come and look over our Cream Separators. We can give you terms and save you money by buying now. Just make a trial once and we will do the rest. Farmers Co-Operative Merc. Co., Walum

Carl F. Werner, Julius Larsen and Arvie Wunderlich went to Wimbledon Saturday to attend the funeral of James Carroll. Mr. Carroll resided on a farm near Walum for a number of years until last fall he moved on a farm near Leal. Mr. Carroll's health has been poor for more than a year. Friends of the family extend heartfelt sympathy to the members of the family in this hour of sorrow.

Miss Magna Fifflet went to Cooperstown Monday to have some dental work done.

THE HIGHWAY LEADING TO PROSPERITY

Along this broad highway, you will find Thrift, Economy, Ambition, Persistence and last but not least a Bank Account.

If you have not a bank account you are on the wrong highway.

Better get on this highway before Adversity overtakes you.

FARMERS STATE BANK

Walum, No. Dak.