

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Mrs Marvin Wallum came down from Binford Thursday where she has been visiting for some time.

E. W. Everson left Thursday for Rogers on business.

John L. Micklethun returned Saturday evening from Fargo where he spent a few days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Iverson arrived here Thursday night from Fargo. Mrs. Iverson was formerly Miss Myrtle Everson who is well known to all of the people in this community. Mr. and Mrs. Iverson were married at Moorhead on June 10th. They then made a trip to Pelican Rapids, Minn. which is the home of Mr. Iverson, and visited for a short time there, later returning to Fargo, where they also have relatives with which they visited for a time. Mr. Iverson was formerly cashier in the Farmers State Bank here, and like his wife is well and favorably known here. The Enterprise joins their many friends in extending to the couple best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

Miss Signe Fliflet was a Coopers-town passenger Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson, Miss Caroline Gilbertson and M. J. Mossing motored to Fargo Saturday.

J. E. Jacobson came up from Dazey Wednesday on business. He remained here until Thursday.

Strawberry and Cream Social

St. Olaf's Ladies Aid will give a strawberry and cream social on the church lawn in Walum on Saturday evening June 25th, commencing at 6:30 p. m. for the benefit of the church. You really can't afford to stay away when such a treat is in sight. Good fresh strawberries with Sweet Country Cream, Elegant Cake and Coffee will be served throughout the evening commencing at 6:30 p. m. Everybody invited and expected.

Miss Ermie Larsen left Monday evening for Fargo where she expects to visit with friends and relatives for some time.

Miss Gladys Swenson was a passenger for Valley City Monday evening.