Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Mossing arrived here last Tuesday from their home at Viceroy, Sask., to visit with friends and relatives in this community. Mrs. Mossing will also take treatment at a Fargo hospital for an ailment.

E. W. Everson returned home from Fargo Tuesday where he has been for some time in connection with business matters.

CREAM! CREAM!

Bring your cream to W. A. Marshall, agent for Bridgman-Russell at Walum. Prices right at all times. Honest weight and reliable tests. Be a Missourian. Do it once, anyway.

A business meeting of St. Olaf's congregation was held in the church Tuesday evening at which time ten applicants for membership in the congregation were considered and acted upon favorably. It was decided that a Sunday School should be started in connection with the church work here and Palm Sunday, March 20th, would be the date on which the Sunday School would commence. Sunday School would meet at 10 o'clock each Sunday morning. Those who have children should send them for enrollment on March 20th, and all others who might be interested in the Sunday School work are requested to attend.

Miss Carrie Larsen came down from Hannaford last Tuesday for a short visit with relatives here. She returned to Hannaford Wednesday.

The Farmers Co-Operative Mercantile Company are putting on a novel entertainment and demonstration in the Walum Hall Saturday afternoon of this week. They have arranged for some real comedy for their program and will demonstrate the Primrose cream separator. The final drawing will take place on the numbers given out for cash payment on account or for purchase of merchandise amounting to $5.00; one number having been given with each $5.00 so paid. The numbers will be drawn and the first number drawn will entitle the holder to a Primrose cream separator absolutely free provided he or she is present at the drawing. A free lunch will be served to those present. The attraction is such that no one can afford to stay away as everything is free and you are assured of good entertainment and instructive demonstrations.

Chester Wallum was a Dazey passenger Friday evening.

Nels Olson returned Saturday from Benson, Minn., where he has spent the past two weeks visiting with friends and looking after his land interests there.
