

• • • • •
• WALUM NEWS NOTES •
• • • • •

T. J. Hagen, receiver of the Farmers State Bank, motored to Grand Forks Thursday to spend a few days with his family there.

E. W. Everson returned Saturday from Bismarck where he spent a few days attending the installation of the newly elected state officials and attending to other business matters.

Joe Nelson and his mother arrived Friday from their home at Clarissa, Minn., having been called here on account of the illness of Mrs. Robert Nelson.

Miss Blanche Sondroll returned Saturday from Fargo where she spent the past week attending the State Teachers Convention as a delegate from Greenfield School district. While there she visited at her home in Moorhead.

Miss Esther Skofstad went to Cooperstown Thursday for a short visit at her home there. She returned here Saturday.

Andrew Wogsland spent the time between trains at the county seat Saturday on business.

Fred Etter came over from Wimbledon Saturday to transact business here.

Joseph and Robert Nelson were Hannaford passengers Saturday.

Peter Grotting went to Cooperstown Monday on business.