

WALUM NEWS NOTES

M. J. Mossing and E. W. Everson left Wednesday for Fargo where Mr. Mossing expected to take his wife from St. Lukes hospital to his home at Viceroy, Sask. They left Fargo Thursday evening going by Valley City. Mrs. Mossing's friends are all glad to learn that she is improved enough so as to be able to make the trip home.

T. J. Hagen went to Fargo Wednesday evening on business. He returned here on Friday.

Geo. Gunderson arrived here Friday from his home at Jenner, Alta., to look after his farming interests here and to visit with friends in the community. He left Saturday evening for Iowa where he has some business to attend to.

Miss Bertha Bjerke came down from Jessie Saturday for a short visit with Miss Blanche Sondraff.

There is no school this week in the Walum school on account of the teachers attending the teachers' institute being held at Cooperstown all this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Nash autoed here from Finley Sunday for a short visit at the home of his son C. C. Nash. They returned to Finley Sunday.

Miss Esther Skofstad was a passenger Saturday for Cooperstown where she expected to visit at her home and remain at Cooperstown during this week to attend the teachers' institute.

Mrs. Mabel Wallum went to Binford on Tuesday to visit with relatives for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Iverson motored to Valley City Thursday evening to meet Mr. and Mrs. Mossing enroute from the St. Lukes road on their way home at Viceroy.

E. W. Everson and son Axel accompanied them home from Valley City.

A number of friends gave a pleasant surprise on Mrs. Bert Campbell last Sunday evening. Mrs. Campbell was presented with a silver spoon in memory of her Walum friends. Mrs. Campbell expects to leave in a short time for Minneapolis.

Mrs. E. W. Everson arrived home from Kallispell, Mont., Sunday evening where she has spent the past six weeks visiting at the home of her daughter Mrs. H. C. Jensen.

Mrs. Andrew Wogsland left Wednesday for Steele, N. D., being called there on account of her father's illness. Her father died while she was there and the funeral was held at Sanborn on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Wogsland returned home Saturday.

Edwin and Axel Everson and Clifford Wogsland motored to Jamestown on business. They returned here Thursday evening.

SIBLEY TRAIL

A little baby girl arrived at the Edgar Curtis home Thursday afternoon. Everyone fine and happy, especially Daddy.

Mrs. Eugene Peterson was a caller at the Oscar Mosher home Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mosher, Mrs. Oscar Mosher and Miss Grätberg attended the military funeral of Oscar Tubstad at Dazey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ladbury were Cooperstown visitors Monday.

Mr. Minch was a business caller in Valley City Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Ladbury and son Merritt returned home Tuesday from Valley City.

Mark Curtis was taken to the St. Lukes hospital in Fargo Wednesday