

WALUM NEWS NOTES

John Goplen spent a couple of days at Fargo the past week on business.

Mrs. Andrew Nelson was at the county seat Saturday having some dental work done.

Nels Nelson left Thursday for Wisconsin after having spent the fall months in this locality.

Geo. J. Jacobson left Thursday evening for Fargo on business. He returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Arne Hovland and daughter Margaret were at Cooperstown between trains Wednesday shopping.

E. W. Iverson and brother Carl motored to Fargo Saturday evening to spend the week end there with relatives.

Miss Myrtle Everson, Mrs. J. P. Danielson, Mrs. H. C. Jensen and Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson motored to Valley City last Tuesday.

Ole Broten, John Goplen, Christ Madson, A. L. Fogderud and H. J. Stromme motored to Valley City Monday on business.

Erik Rud left Saturday for his home at Valley City after having spent some time here looking after his farming interests here.

Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson and Miss Lela Campbell motored to Edmunds, N. D., last Monday where they visited with relatives until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Larsen entertained a number of friends at their farm home Friday evening in honor of Carl A. Nelson whose birthday was the following day. Those present had an enjoyable time.

Right now is the time to get top recovering for your FORD. Have a good top and side curtains during the cold weather in order to protect yourself and others from the chilly winds. The MOTOR INN, Walum, have them.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wallum, in a communication wish to thank all of their friends who so kindly assisted them during Elmer's illness while here, and while preparing to move to Wisconsin. Mr. Wallum has improved since they left here which is good news to all their friends.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brown Tuesday evening and unfortunately it lived but a very short time. Their many friends extend their sympathy to the grief-stricken parents. Mrs. Brown is reported to be getting along as well as can be expected.

Christ Madsen has purchased the pool hall at Karnak and expects to take possession of it on the 15th of this month. Mr. Madsen has rented his farm east of town and expects to move some time this week. Mr. and Mrs. Madsen have farmed in this community for a number of years and while here have made a host of friends who regret their leaving.

Next Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 18th and 19th, dedication services will be held in St. Olaf's Lutheran Church here. It is expected that these services will be the biggest event held here for some time. A number of ministers will be here to take part in the dedication services and it should be worth anyone's while to attend these meetings.