

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

A Skofstad motored to his home at Cooperstown Saturday.

Bert Campbell autoed to Final, N. D., on business Wednesday.

Friday, October 22nd, is the date of Oscar Storlie's auction sale. Attend.

Mr. O. W. Carl, of Fargo, spent a few days in town last week on business.

Miss Lily Wunderlich left Saturday for Wimbledon where she will visit with friends for a short time.

Erik Rud came up from Valley City Thursday to attend the dedication of the Eldfjord and Walum churches.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Sanderson left Tuesday for Olympia, Wash., where they expect to make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson, E. W. Everson, Misses Lela Campbell and Myrtle Everson motored to Valley City Sunday.

Don't forget Oscar Storlie's Sale, Friday, Oct. 22. A list of the goods to be sold will be found elsewhere in this paper.

Miss Ella Mockstad, from Colfax, Wis., spent a few days here visiting at the Grotting home west of town. She left Tuesday for Billings, Mont., where she expects to remain for the winter.

A large number of people from Walum and vicinity attended the dedication service at Eldfjord Sunday. The crowd there was immense and all enjoyed the service.

Dedication services were held at St. Olaf's Lutheran Church Monday and Tuesday. There were a large number of people here for the service, both local people and a number from other points in the state. There were ten visiting pastors who all took part in the services. A choir was also here and gave special music for the occasion.