

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Bert Campbell and son Lawrence left Monday evening for Shawmut, Mont., where they expect to remain during the winter.

E. W. Everson left Monday for points in Barnes county on business. He returned here Saturday to spend the week end at home.

Mrs. Bert Campbell left Tuesday for Minneapolis where she expects to visit with relatives for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Werner left Wednesday for Fargo with their son Gordon who had an operation for an abscess Thursday. They were accompanied by Eric O. Wallin. Messrs. Werner and Wallin returned here Friday morning.

The St. Olaf Ladies Aid will have their Annual Sale and Supper in the Walum Hall on Wednesday, November 2nd.

Mrs. Julius Larsen was a passenger Thursday for Fargo where she went to stay with Mrs. Carl Werner while Mr. Werner came home for a short stay. Messrs. Werner and Larsen motored to Fargo Friday evening, and all returned here Saturday.

Quite a number of Walumites went to Hannaford Sunday afternoon to hear Attorney General Lemke, but were disappointed on account of him not coming, it being claimed he had auto trouble.

Sometime during the night of October 15th, a Maxwell car owned by Mrs. J. E. Danielson was stolen from where it was parked near the hotel. Up to date no trace has been found of the car.

Mrs. Grover Campbell came up from Fingal Thursday for a short visit with relatives here. She returned to Fingal Friday.

Clifford Wogland and Mrs. J. E. Danielson left Sunday by auto for Montana where they expect to remain for sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wunderlich motored to Jamestown Thursday to get their household goods here in a truck. They expect to move on the farm vacated by Julius Larsen in a short time.

Grover C. Campbell came up from Fingal Saturday for a short visit with relatives. He returned to Fingal Saturday evening.

Miss Esther Skofstad went to Fargo Friday evening for a short visit with friends there.

T. J. Hagen motored to Grand Forks Saturday to spend the week end with his family there.

C. B. Neal motored to Fargo Saturday for an over Sunday's stay with his family.