

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Mrs. J. P. Danielson left Tuesday evening for Fargo on business.

Mrs. Andrew Nelson went to Cooperstown Wednesday to have some dental work done.

Chester Wallum spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Saturday on business.

E. W. Everson and John Goplen went to Fargo Thursday on business. They returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Andrew Nelson and Miss Ragna Fliflet spent the time between trains at Hannaford Saturday.

Mrs. Erik Heyerdahl returned to Valley City Monday having visited with relatives here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferman Layne autoed over from Edmunds Saturday evening for an over Sunday visit at the Jacobson home.

Mrs. Bert Campbell and son Lawrence left Thursday for Minneapolis where they expect to visit relatives for a couple of weeks.

L. T. Lilljengren and Miss Hilda Beaulieu left Thursday evening for Mahnomen, Minn., to visit with relatives and friends.

There is no school at the Walum school this week on account of the faculty attending the teachers institute being held at Cooperstown.

Mrs. E. F. Price arrived here Wednesday from Fargo to spend some time visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Melvin Heyerdahl.

Marvin and Gay Hustad and J. Hathaway motored to Fargo and Breckenridge Thursday for a short visit with relatives. They returned here Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Erik Rud returned to their home at Valley City Monday after having spent the past few days here attending the dedication services of Eldfjord and Walum churches.

Word was received here Thursday of the death of Elmer Wallum at his home near Holmen, Wis., Thursday morning. His many friends here were in the belief that Mr. Wallum was recovering from his illness and to them the news of his death came as a sudden blow. While living here Mr. Wallum made a host of friends who regret the loss of one who at all times showed a friendly spirit, and extend their sincere sympathy to Mrs. Wallum and daughter Sylvia.