

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Friday of this week, attend Elmer Wallum's auction sale.

Don't miss Elmer Wallum's Auction Sale, Friday, Sept. 17, 1920.

E. W. Everson returned home Friday from a trip to Fargo and the Twin Cities.

Erik Rud came up from Valley City Tuesday to spend a few days here looking after his farming interests.

Misses Grace Wogsland and Ruth Percy left Wednesday for Lewis town, Mont., where they will visit for a short time before going to Great Falls where they expect to remain for the winter.

Thomas Carroll left for his home Thursday at Findlay, Ill., after a week's visit at the home of his brother, James Carroll.

Miss Inez Strande left Friday for her home at Dazey where she will spend the week end.

Mrs. Geo. Medley and Miss Annabelle Brunberg spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Saturday shopping.

Carl Iverson arrived Thursday from his home at Pelican Rapids, Minn., for a visit with his brother, E. W. Iverson.

New Fall Goods in the latest patterns are arriving daily at the Farmers Store, Walum.

Friday of this week Elmer Wallum will sell his personal property at the H. G. Rohwing farm one mile east of Walum by public action. On account of ill health Mr. Wallum has decided to quit farming and therefore must sell his farming equipment. There are loads of good farming equipment and some extra good live stock to be sold at this sale. For those who are in need of farm machinery, horses or livestock a visit to this sale should be well worth your while. The Wallums are as yet undecided just where they will locate and make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Werner motored to Fargo Friday where they expected to see a physician regarding their son Gordon who has experienced some throat trouble. They expect to return Sunday.

Edwin Everson and sister Mrs. J. P. Danielson, motored to Hope Friday on a business mission.

Fred F. Butler returned to Rogers Saturday after spending some time here looking after the marketing of Elmer Wallum's crop.

Mrs. O. M. Rognlien and Mrs. Alfred Fogderud will serve for the St. Olaf Ladies Aid in the ladies' room at the church Thursday of this week. An invitation is extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Baker left Thursday for their home at Fargo after a week's visit at the Jacobson home here.

Of course you can't have everything in this world, but there is a whole lot that nobody wants.