

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Threshing had a set-back the past week on account of the heavy rains.

Geo. Medley and R. Peterson were Cooperstown passengers Thursday.

Miss Inez Strande left Friday for her home at Dazey to spend the week end.

Theo. Lilljegen left Friday for Fargo where he expected to spend a few days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Erik Rud came up from Valley City Friday to spend a few days visiting with relatives west of town.

Mrs. Hans C. Jensen arrived Saturday from Royal, Iowa, and will visit for some time here with relatives before leaving for her home at Kallispell, Mont.

Carl F. Werner and Bennie M. Haugen took a load of live stock to the Equity Packing Co., Fargo, Monday, with the International truck which the Farmers Store has.

John Broten and his son Glen left Monday for Fargo where Glen expects to enroll as a student at Concordia College. They were accompanied by E. W. Everson. The trip being made by auto.

Henry Lynch left last Tuesday for Butte, Mont., where he expects to transact business before going to his home in Illinois. He spent about a week here looking after his farming interests.

L. O. Skogen left Wednesday for his home at Ghent, Minn., after having spent a week looking after his farm interests here. Mr. Skogen rented his farm to Justin Wallum for the next three years. It is expected that James Carroll, the present tenant, will secure another farm or quit farming on account of poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wallum and daughter Sylvia left Thursday for LaCrosse, Wis. They were accompanied by Mrs. Engstad and Mrs. Wallum's father. The Wallum's have made their home in this community for a number of years and while here made a host of friends who regret their leaving which became necessary on account of Mr. Wallum's ill health. They expect to make their home for the present at least near Holman, Wis.