

Grace City

Lady

Dies

The Grace City Gazette: It is with deepest sorrow that we are called upon to chronicle the following chapter in the life and activities of our city and community, that of the passing to the Great Beyond of one of our beloved mothers and citizens.

Death has entered our midst and called from us one that was sorely needed in the home, as a mother to the eight small children, as a wife of one of our business men, and last but not least, for the influence that was only hers to give to the community at large. A true Christian in the full meaning of the word. To know her was to love and respect her, and by her death all will keenly feel the loss. She passed on in the faith that held her up through all her suffering, that faith and belief in God, that all things work together for good to those that love God. Her last words were, "John, I will soon be in glory."

Mrs. Hannah Oien Aarestad was born Aug. 2, 1878, at Shelly, Minn., passed away April 6, 1916, age 37 years, 8 months, 4 days. In the year 1900 she was married to J. J. Aarestad. To this union were born ten children, of whom two, a boy and a girl, died in infancy. She leaves eight children, of whom four are boys and four girls; a husband, father, two brothers and one sister to mourn her loss. About two years ago she contracted that dreaded disease, tuberculosis, and all efforts to get relief failed.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church at 1 o'clock, April 7th, by Rev. Moore, after which the remains were taken to Shelly, Minn., for interment.

To the family is extended the sympathy of the entire community.