

son, Lyle Judge, Alice Angus.
Duet, Hazel Larson and Edna Thore-son.

Critique Miss Campbell

Life is uncertain and death is sure. William Angus will draw your will or write your life insurance at the bank where "Service Counts."

SALT. SALT

Get your supply of salt while we have some on hand.—Hannaford Mercantile Co.

Ed Fenton Passes Away

Edward Fenton, who lives in the Karnak neighborhood died at his home on Sunday night, Nov. 4, the primary cause of his death being a cancer.

Edward Fenton, son of Mary and George Fenton, was born at Mc-Chinicsburgh, Ohio, Nov. 9th, 1853, and passed away at his home near Karnak, Nov. 4, 1917, aged 43 years 11 months and 25 days. When 19 years old he went from his Ohio home to Galveston, Texas, and lived at that place for four years after which he came to Iowa. He was united in marriage to Hattie Ross on December 29, 1898, and eight years later moved to North Dakota.
To this union were born six daughters, Margaret, Mary, Luella, Iva, Emma and Eleanor. He leaves to mourn his loss besides his wife and family, two sisters and one brother all of whom reside in Ohio, and numerous friends and acquaintances in this vicinity.

The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. J. C.
Willson of Hannaford conducting the services and interment was made in the Ladbury cemetery. The funeral was attended by a large crowd of friends and acquaintances who gathered to pay their last respects to the departed. Mrs. Bella Ross, of Gilbert, Iowa, mother of Mrs. Fenton, was the only relative from a distance in attendance at the funeral.

A choir consisting of Misses Lula Larson and Marie Oppegard, Mrs. C.
O. Bruskrud and J. B. Shearer and Henry Curtis with Mrs. Eva Curtis presiding at the organ rendered several selections appropriate for the occasion. The pall bearers were J.
N. Osborne, E. A. Duff, R. D. Jones, Oscar Mosher, E. J. Mosher and Thos. Stee. All these were brother Woodmen of which lodge Mr. Fenton was an esteemed member.

The entire community extends their heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing relatives in the hour of their bereavement.

—Dazey Commercial.

Is your property well insured?
Five hundred dollars on your household furniture would cost you but $7.50 for three years and would come in handy in case of a fire. Better see William Angus about it today.

This Week. Stove Sale and Free Lunch, Nov. 14th to 20th at Hannaford Merc. Co.

Many of the farmers are putting in the hours from daylight to dark in turning over the fields preparatory for the next year's crop. The change in the weather is one thoroly appreciated by them, as it gives them an opportunity to get a little more field ready for the spring work

The present balmy brand of weather dished up to us by the weather man gives the head of the household a warm feeling of gratitude for the blessings of Divine Providence. And in the meantime the coal bin is retaining a little of its copulency. From Thursday afternoon till the present writing at noon Monday, with the exception of a few hours on Sunday p. a heavy fog has shrouded everything with mist, giving our climate more the appearance