

John Francis, who has been a sufferer with anemia for several months, passed away at his home in Coopers-town at 6:30 Tuesday morning. Mr. Francis has been ailing for many years, but some months ago took a turn for the worse, and continued to fail rapidly until his death.