

Nic

Green

Is Dead

Nic Green, for many years a resident of Cooperstown but more recently of Beach, was drowned while attempting to cross the river at that place.

Mr. Green was at one time assistant in the county auditor's office, and later worked as an accountant and bookkeeper for various firms in Hannaford as well as in other neighboring towns.

Deceased was well known to most of the citizens of Griggs county, who will regret his sudden and untimely death.