

The body of Wm. Hadlock was taken from Joplin, Mont., to Valley City, N. D., for burial last Saturday. Wm. Hadlock was formerly farming west of town, and was one of the pioneers in this community. Several years ago he removed to Montana and has been a resident of that state ever since. He was about 58 years of age, and has been ill the past two years with dropsy and heart trouble.