

Mrs. Ole C. Johnson

Mrs. Gunhild Johnson died Wednesday, August 4, after a long and painful illness, having undergone two very serious operations at St. Lukes hospital, finally succumbing to cancer of the stomach. Though it was realized for a long time that death was only a matter of a short time, the end came before it was expected. She was very patient in her suffering, and was reconciled to leave this world for the Eternal Home beyond the grave where there shall be no more suffering or sorrow.

Deceased was born on Farm Gjellien, Dovre, Guldbrandsdalen, Norway, July 23, 1864. In 1901 she was married at Cooperstown, N. D., to Ole C. Johnson. To them three children were born, of which one, Julius, survives.

Brief funeral services were held Friday, Aug. 6, at the house, after which the remains were taken to Mabel congregation, services conducted by Rev. P. A. Thoreson in the church after which interment was made in Mabel cemetery. The funeral was attended by a large gathering of friends, and the many beautiful boquets of flowers, showed she was well-beloved by all who knew her.

The sincerest sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved husband and son.
