

L. Ladbury died at Cooperstown Thursday evening, Sept. 16. He had been residing with his daughter at Cooperstown for a number of years. His wife died some years ago. Mr. Ladbury was one of the pioneers of Northern Barnes county. A son, Ed. Ladbury, is a well known farmer residing east of Dazey. Funeral services took place Sunday at Cooperstown. Rev. J. Chas. Evans conducting the services.