

Mrs. Christ Madsen

Mrs. Christ Madsen passed away Thursday afternoon at her home east of Walum, at the age of thirty-six years, one month and twenty-four days. Her death was not unexpected for she had been a sufferer for two years with that dread disease, cancer, and death finally came to relieve her from her suffering.

Charlotte Moss Jaeger, was born June 23rd, 1880, in Helgoland, Nordlands Amt, Norway. When she was nineteen years of age her parents moved to the United States and located in Hannaford.

On the 4th of April, 1902, she was united in marriage to Christ Madsen and for a time made their home in Hannaford, later moving to their farm southeast of town.

Mrs. Madsen sought relief at Fargo and Rochester, and was given every care possible, but it was of no avail. She bore her suffering patiently and came to the end in the blessed hope of the Better Life Beyond. Mrs. Madsen will be missed in her community as she had a host of friends. Her kindly disposition had endeared her to all. She was a faithful and loving wife, and the bereaved husband has the sympathy of all in his great sorrow. She also leaves to mourn her passing, her father, Ole Jaeger of Scobey, Mont.; two sisters, Mrs. Lars Pederson of Hannaford, and Mrs. M. D. McCormick of New Rockford; and one brother, August Jaeger of Hannaford. The sympathy of all goes out to these brothers and sisters in the loss of their loving sister.

Funeral services were held at the Hannaford Lutheran Church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in the cemetery north of town, Rev. P. A. Thoreson officiating.

Besides the near relatives, other relatives who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Lars Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jacobsen of Luverne. M. S. Bothne, of Luverne, sang a solo at the services.
