

Ole Paulson, of Sutton, who for several years worked for A. J. Anderson, suffered a paralytic stroke on March 4th. He seemed to recover somewhat but thought it best to go to a hospital at Fargo. Yesterday word was received here that he had died Saturday night at 8:00 o'clock. The remains were taken to Sutton Monday, and funeral services will be held Thursday.