Word was received here Wednes ! day by relatives. Cora Lykken and Mrs. R. E. Leiser, that their cousin, Mrs. O. W. Sundahi of Winnepeg. had passed away on Wednesday morning at five o'clock. Mrs. Sundahl was burned to death in an explosion of gasoline which occured e late Tuesday afternoon in the apartn ment in which she resided with her husband. A tin of gasoline with which she was clearning a dress became ignited it appears, setting fire to the furniture of the room. In endeavoring to extinguish the blaze. she was decorred y were en on the face and bands. Miss Lykken left on Thursday to attend the funeral which was held at Grafton Saturday.