

Obituary

Mrs. Phil R. Thoreson was laid to rest in the family lot of the Casselton Cemetery Saturday afternoon at 2:30, after an illness of three weeks.

The funeral services were held from the home of T. J. Edwards, uncle of the deceased, Rev. Hanson of Page holding a short prayer service at the house, after which the body was taken to the Federated church, and there services were continued by Rev. Cooper of Casselton, after which Rev. Hanson gave a sermon beautiful in consolation and hope. The songs "Asleep in Jesus" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" were rendered by a mixed quartette, and High School classmates of the deceased carried the flower laden casket to its last resting place, where with a prayer offered by Rev. Cooper it was lowered into its earthly home.

Irene Davis Thoreson was well known in this community, having lived here the last few years. She was of unusually sunny and kind disposition, and made many friends who will long remember and miss her.

She leaves of those nearest, to mourn her departure, husband and infant baby, two sisters and mother.

Soul of our Souls! and Safeguard of the world!

Sustain, Thou only canst, the sick of heart;

Restore their languid spirits, and recall

Their lost affections unto Thee and Thine!

—Wordsworth

D. T.