

Dazey Commercial: Mrs. Leo Whiting died at her home in Max. this state, Tuesday evening. A daughter was born to her Tuesday morning and for a time she appeared to be getting along very well, but complications arose and she passed away about nine o'clock that evening. The child is still alive. Mrs. Whiting was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Thurston formerly of Dazey but now of Valley City. She was born and raised in the vicinity of Dazey and her untimely death is mourned by her many many friends. She was married to Leo Whiting in June, 1913, and leaves her husband, two infant children, her parents and two brothers besides numerous other relatives and friends to mourn her loss.