

Sentinel-Courier: At the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday, Dec. 1, occurred the marriage of Regina Klubben and Swen Haaland in the presence of only immediate relatives, the Rev. H. P. Josephson officiating. The bride was attended by the Misses Bertha Klubben and Rachel Sortland, and the groom by Edward and Albert Klubben. The bride was beautifully dressed in crepe meteor, trimmed in fur, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The Sentinel-Courier extends congratulations and best wishes for a happy wedded life.
