

Nine of Sadie Sorenson's girl friends entertained her at a shower on Monday evening at the home of Miss Kaas. Before lunch the time was pleasantly spent in hemming towels for the guest of honor. The dining room was tastefully decorated in a color scheme of yellow and white. Two hearts, on which were written the names of the bride and the groom, were suspended above the center of the table and festoons of crepe paper came to each plate. The place cards were two hearts. At the close of the evening the bride-to-be was presented with many pretty and useful gifts for her new home. Those present were Julia Forthun, Marion Markwood, Pearl Blix, Eva Fogderud, Edna Thoreson, Hazel Peterson, Anna Anundson, Jennie Furaas, Anna Stone.
