

Moller-Sorenson

A quiet home wedding took place Saturday, Feb. 10, at high noon, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Thoreson, when Sadie Magdaline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Sorenson, was united in marriage to Mr. Dais Ferdinand Moller of Nelson, Wis., in the presence of a few relatives and friends. At the strains of the wedding march played by Edna Thoreson the bridal party entered the living room and took their places in front of an improvised altar. The bridesmaid was Anna Stone and the groom was supported by John Sorenson. The impressive ceremony of the Lutheran church was read by Rev. P. A. Thoreson. The bride wore a gown of white poplin. The bridesmaid wore a dress of alic blue.

Immediately after the ceremony a two-course dinner was served. The dining room had been prettily decorated in a color scheme of pink and white, Helga Anundson, Edna Thoreson and Emilia Forthun assisted in serving.

The bride was born in this village and has lived here practically all her life. The groom is the son of a retired minister of Nelson, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Moller left on the afternoon train for Milnor, N. D., where they will visit for a short time with relatives, after which they will leave for their future home at Nelson, Wis.

Rev. E. Moller, of Milnor, a brother of the groom, was an out of town guest.

The Enterprise joins their numerous other friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Moller a long, happy and prosperous journey through life.
