

Grace City Gazette: Playert Aarestad, the young son of J. J.
Aarestad, fell suddenly ill Tuesday and was rushed at once to New Rockford where he was operated on for appendicitis. He was in a very bad shape and it was fortunate that No. 3 stopped for them. He was operated on as soon as he reached the hospital. He is getting along real nice, however, and will soon be home again.
