

Mr. Anderson, who is working the Jorgensen farm in Broadview, met with a serious accident last week. He was in the field on the grain drill when in some manner he was thrown forward and the drill passed over him. Several ribs were broken and he was badly bruised.