

F. D. Babcock and his son arrived last Wednesday from Ida Grove, Ia., to look after their farm interests near town. Mr. Babcock's farms yielded about seventeen bushels to the acre this year, and he expresses himself as being well satisfied with his North Dakota investments.