

At the school election in Bartley school district Thursday, it was decided by a vote of about two to one to build one central school rather than three separate schoolhouses. The consolidated school will be erected on the quarter-line of section 16.