

trailer containing a complete camping outfit, and in a few minutes this trailer can be transformed into a room giving all the comforts of home. Mr. Berg, his wife and five children spent yesterday as guests of Mr. P. Abrahamson south of town and expected to leave this morning for Lake Mills, Iowa. Since 29 years ago he left the old farm on North Prairie, where he was raised, fortune has been smiling upon Mr. Berg and he is now one of the most prosperous and prominent citizens of North Dakota, being an extensive farmer and also interested in several banks.—Lanesboro Weekly.
