

Mrs. C. L. Berg had the misfortune to fall into the open cellar way last Thursday evening fracturing her ankle severely. Dr. Benson reduced the fracture and she is now getting along nicely although it may be some time before she will be able to be around.