

Chas. G. Bergren shipped his household goods to McHenry yesterday. The family are also going there this week to make their future home at that point.