

Jas. Bothwell was the victim of a paralytic stroke last Monday afternoon. He was raking hay at the time, but fortunately the men were near and went to his assistance before he fell. He is gradually improving in strength, and will undoubtedly soon regain his former vigor.