

*

Daze Commercial: S. G. Bowman, the new depot agent, has constructed a wireless apparatus in his yard during the past week, and he informs us that each evening he copies messages from the government station at Atherton, Virginia, as well as exchanging messages with several amateur offices in North Dakota. He states that by spring he expects to have the extra apparatus which will make it possible for him to receive all the press reports from the various press bureau stations in the country.

* * *