at Cooperstown

The New Strand Theatre and picture house of Cooperstown, N. D. will open their doors to the general public of this community on next Friday and Saturday evenings, Aug. 18th and 19th with a change of program each evening. This theatre building is up to date in every respect, fully equipped with all modern conveniences of the present day city show houses and in fact the best show house in state considering the size of the town.

The title of Friday's program "The Great Divide", by Wm. Vaughn Moody featuring Ethel Clayton and House Peters, two of the best known performers in the business. This Lubin Feature five act drama produced in the Grand Canyon of Colorado, is a master piece worth seeing and we know it will please you. In addition we will present two reels of Chaplin's late comedy pictures and you are assured of a good laugh. Admission 25 cents.

Saturday evening, Aug. 19th we present "The Rosary" a Selig Red Seal Play in seven reels written by Edward F. Rose from his wonderful drama, as good as any sermon.

The "Rosary" features Kathlyn Williams and Wheeler Oakman. Kathlyn Williams is possibly known to most of our movie fans on account of her featuring in the great play, "Adventures of Kathlyn" etc.
