

Olof Edland returned to Hannaford Saturday from Fargo where he had been to see his mother who is at St. Lukes Hospital. She is in a very critical condition from the results of an operation which showed she was suffering from cancer of the stomach.