

Mr. Elliot who has been running an elevator and working in a store at Revere had the misfortune yesterday to fall backwards into the cellar at the store and sustained a scalp wound and concussion of the brain. Mr. Elliot was unconscious and delirious for some time. Dr. Benson was called to give him medical aid.