

Sentinel-Courier: Dr. Brimi was called to Hannaford last Friday and in company with Dr. Benson went out to the home of Ed Everson, of Bartley township, where they found the seven-year-old daughter down with scarlet fever. The place was quarantined and every step taken to prevent the spread of the disease.