

*

Sentinel-Courier: The many friends of Miss Maude L. Fiero, a former Griggs county girl, will be interested to know that she has recently been elected to a position in the Department of History in Columbia University. Miss Fiero received her early education in the country schools of Griggs county. She has held positions in different cities of New York and at present is principal of the State Teachers' Training School, Denton, Texas. Her friends here and elsewhere will congratulate her on this recognition of her ability in her chosen profession and wish her success in her new position.