

L. Goss Goes to Montana

A deal was consummated last week whereby the Dooley, Mont., electric light plant and feed mill was sold to Lloyd Goss of Hannaford, who will take possession about the middle of March. Mr. Goss is an experienced electrician, and will endeavor to give the people of Dooley as good service as any city can expect.

Mr. Goss is making arrangements to move his family to Dooley in a short time.
