

ABOUT fifty of the citizens of the village attended the patriotic meeting that was held last Wednesday evening. A committee was appointed to attend to the matter of erecting a flag pole in the village; a resolution was unanimously adopted endorsing the emergency war measure before Congress providing for national prohibition; and many other questions were taken up and discussed. So many things were brought up that it was decided to call another meeting for Monday evening to continue the discussion.