

The children of the Grammar room had a fly contest which ended May first and in all 4,571 flies were killed. Of these William Westley had to his credit 1,614. Ralph Knauss 926, Kenneth Markuson 707, Dorothy Schmidt 402, Arthur Forthun 264, Oliver Thoreson 202, Lyle Judge 201, Alice Angus 130 and Mildred Dunnum 125. William Westley and Ralph Knauss received the boys' prizes, and Dorothy Schmidt the girls'.