

Commencement is over and the teachers and pupils of the Hannaford School are now enjoying a well earned vacation. The graduating exercises Thursday evening were simple, but impressive. A song by the girls' glee club, the address by Rev. Talbot, the presentation of the graduating classes to Claus Jackson, president of the board, by Prof. Coddington, and the presentation of diplomas to the graduates by Claus Jackson, and the ceremonies attendant upon the graduation of the first class from the Hannaford High School were over.
